

2023 Application Guidelines

Special Selection for the Chinese Government Graduate Student Overseas Study Program

Application procedure for admission to the three-year second-term doctoral program at the University of Tsukuba (UT) : Special selection for international students to be enrolled in Degree Programs in Pure and Applied Sciences at the Graduate School of Science and Technology for Academic Year 2023

This special selection is conducted by the Graduate School of Science and Technology to facilitate enrollment in its Degree Programs in Pure and Applied Sciences by Chinese students to be dispatched overseas through the Chinese Government Graduate Student Overseas Study Program (CGGSOS Program).

If you wish to enroll in our graduate school from Academic Year 2023, apply according to the following procedure.

1 . Choice of suitable program

For each doctoral program, a few students are accepted under this special selection.

Contact the program directors (listed below) and make sure that you choose a program that fits your academic goal.

You can also visit the graduate school website: <http://www.pas.tsukuba.ac.jp/english/>

2 . Application requirements

- 1) Individuals who have a master's degree or who are expected to receive one by September 2023.
- 2) Individuals who have a specialized degree or expected to receive one by September 2023.

3) Individuals who have a master's degree or a specialized degree awarded by a university outside Japan as of September 2023.

4) Individuals who are 24 years of age or older as of September 2023, and whose qualification is recognized as equivalent to a master's degree or a specialized degree as the result of the eligibility screening conducted by the University of Tsukuba.

Note: If you have any questions about your eligibility or would like to be screened, please contact us individually at nyushi-pas@un.tsukuba.ac.jp.

This special selection is intended for Chinese students being dispatched overseas through the CGGSOS Program established by the Government of China.

Important points to keep in mind when filing your application:

(1) Even if you pass this special selection, you will not be allowed to enroll in our doctoral program unless you are accepted for the CGGSOS Program (the Chinese government only dispatches doctoral research fellows who have master's degrees).

Note that you will also not be allowed to enroll in our doctoral program if selection for the CGGSOS Program is not conducted.

(2) Successful applicants will be allowed to enroll in our doctoral program from the fall semester (October 1, 2023).

3. Fees & Tuition

The entrance examination fee for this special selection will not be collected.

Applicants who have passed the examination and confirmed to receive a China Scholarship Council (CSC) scholarship will be admitted to UT. Entrance fee and tuition will be waived. However, students must pay the tuition for the study period that exceeds the scholarship payment period (i.e. 36 months, which is the standard period required to complete the doctoral programs listed in "1. Choice of suitable program").

4. Application procedures

Before Applying

Before applying, applicants must contact a desired faculty advisor and obtain his/her consent to your application prior to submitting your application for the examination.

5. Application form and other documents

Please read the lists and notes below carefully and prepare the necessary documents for application.

No.	Documents	Remarks
1	Application form	Fill out the required information on the form designated by the University of Tsukuba. Be sure to include your email address.
2	CV for international applicants	Fill out the required information on the form designated by the University of Tsukuba.
3	Academic transcript	You must submit a transcript certifying that your academic results meet the requirements for the doctoral program of the graduate school at the University of Tsukuba (a transcript is normally issued by the graduate school from which you obtained your master's degree). The document you submit must be the original.
4	Examination admission card/photo ID card	Fill out the required information on the form designated by the University of Tsukuba. You must attach a photograph (4 cm x 3 cm) of yourself taken in the last three months. The photograph must be a frontal view of your head and shoulders without any headwear.

5	Proof of degree (or expected degree)	Submit proof of your degree (or expected degree) in English or Japanese. If you have a master's degree from a Japanese university, you may submit a master's program diploma. If you have not obtained a master's degree yet, ensure that you have proof of your degree by September 2023. The document you submit must be the original. If submitting the original document would be difficult, please contact us individually.
6	Letter of recommendation from a professor at your university or the university from which you graduated	Submit a reference letter in English or Japanese by using the form designated by the University of Tsukuba. The letter must be signed by your supervisor at your current or past university. The document you submit must be the original.
7	Abstract for your research results	Submit an abstract describing your research results in English or Japanese on two pages of A4 by using the form designated by the University of Tsukuba.
8	Research plan document	Submit a document describing your research plan in English or Japanese by using the form designated by the University of Tsukuba. Make sure that you describe your research plan clearly on two pages of A4. In addition, please include the following: the topic of your current research study; the name of your university (or the one from which you graduated); your name; the name of the program that you wish to be enrolled in; your research area of interest; the research issues; your research method; your expected goal; and the conclusion.

Note:

1. If your current name is different from that on the documents you submit (for example, because of marriage), you will be required to submit proof of your name change (e.g., copy of marriage license).
2. All documents must be written in Japanese or English. Otherwise, attach a Japanese or English translation.
3. Submitted documents will not be returned.
4. Your application will not be evaluated if the above documents are incomplete or not accurately completed. Applications received after the deadline will not be processed.
5. Before you apply, you have to contact a prospective supervisor (a faculty member from whom you wish to receive academic instruction) and obtain their consent to your application in advance.

6. Handling of Personal Information

The University of Tsukuba uses the entrance examination results and other personal information that it obtains from application documents only for matters related to admissions and screening or to improve its admission processes and education systems. The identity of each applicant is kept strictly confidential.

7. Security Export Control

The University of Tsukuba has established the University of Tsukuba Rules on Security Export Control in accordance with the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act, and conducts strict examinations for acceptance of international students. International applicants who fall under any of the conditions set out in said regulations may be unable to enter their desired course or program.
